Defendant Jong Moon Choi is charged in the above-captioned matter with conspiracy in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, tax evasion in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7201, and structuring in violation of 31 U.S.C. § 5324(a)(3). Mr. Choi is represented by Assistant Federal Public Defender Angela Hansen, who is currently on leave to attend a memorial service.

On June 29, 2010, Mr. Choi was released on a $25,000 bond secured by a corporate surety. Mr. Choi's conditions of release included a restriction on his travel to the Northern District of California, where this case is pending, and to the Northern District of Georgia, where Mr. Choi resides. Mr. Choi is supervised by Pretrial Services in the Northern District of Georgia.

1 The parties hereby STIPULATE to a modification of the terms of Mr. Choi's release to 2 permit him to travel to Clarksville, Tennessee, at the direction of the Pretrial Services Office in 3 the Northern District of Georgia for the limited purpose of visiting his father during his father's 4 period of convalescence. Counsel for the defendant has learned that Mr. Choi's father was 5 recently in a very serious automobile accident and is currently hospitalized in Clarksville, 6 Tennessee. Mr. Moore would like to be able to visit his injured father and attend to his father's 7 health issues. Counsel for the defendant has spoken with Ms. Lisa Moore, Mr. Choi's 8 supervising Pretrial Services Officer in the Northern District of Georgia. Ms. Moore has no 9 objection to allowing Mr. Choi to travel to Clarksville, Tennessee, as is necessary to visit his 10 father for his father's health needs. Ms. Moore has further indicated that she would verify Mr.
 11 Choi's travel.

12 Counsel for the government has no objection to a modification of the terms of his release
 13 to permit Mr. Choi to visit his father, as directed by and verified by Pretrial Services.
